The Democracy of Good Taste

"The elegance of your American girl's was most amazing to me," declared Ernest Lubitsch, prominent figure in the European film industry, who recently visited this country. "There do not seem to be any classes."

An old story—but even new to foreigners. The democracy of elegance in dress is the democracy of good taste—the common heritage of American women in every walk of life. It is this sure sense of fashion values, coupled with native resourcefulness in making dollars count, that enables feminine America to dress well on modest incomes.

Miss Katharine Thompson.

The engagement of Miss Katharine Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thompson, Wilmington, Del., to Lieut. Osborn C. Wood, son of Major General and Mrs. Leonard Wood, has just been announced. Miss Thompson is now in Manila visiting Miss Louise Wood, sister of her fiancé. During the war Miss Thompson served as a Red Cross nurse in France.

Soprano and Boy Pianist Please Many

Despite other attractions and inclement weather, Library hall was crowded Monday night to hear Mrs. Violet Hipzeman Penlon, soprano, and Coe Pettit, pianist, give a program under auspices of the MacDowell club. The program was extended, by the numerous encores, to last for almost two hours and a half, and was proclaimed one of the best this winter. It was the third public recital. The final concert, in May, will also be open to the public. Coe Pettit, a 16-year old boy from Chicago, proved to be the surprise of the evening, astonishing with his remarkable playing. He played the most difficult selections with freedom and ease, and showed an unusual ability, for one of his age, in playing all his pieces from memory.

In response to insistent applause following his Chopin's Fantasia, in his second group, he played his march selection, composed by himself. The name has been changed from "Pettit's March" to "Victory March." Pettit played this piece when he toured the camps during the war.

Among the numbers played by him were "First Tune from County Derry," "Gaudete," "Ballet Music from 'Romeo and Juliet,'" "Sonata in D Minor," "Brahms' Scherzo," "Mendelssohn's 'The Shepherd,'" "Arenski's 'The Shepherd,'" "Moskowsky's 'Dream of Love,'" "Liszt's 'La Campanella,'" and "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 9" both by Liszt.

Mrs. Penlon, Waukegan, was an charming in voice and manner as ever, and made one more pleasing impression on Janesville music-lovers. This was her first appearance before the Janesville public, although it is the third time she has sung here.

She has a pleasing soprano voice, full and powerful in the strong high register, sweet and clear in the lighter moods. She also was forced to respond with several encores. Her numbers, in the two groups, were "Fantasia all' Italiana" by Gatti, "Ave Maria" by Schubert, "Child of Earth with Golden Hair," C. E. Horn; "Come With Me," Burleigh; "Twenty-Eighteen," Dean; "The No. 30 My Love," and "Cunning Little Thing," both by Richard Hageman.

Miss Grace Murphy was accompanist for Mrs. Penlon. Mrs. J. J. Wilcox and Mrs. S. S. Spillie had charge of the program.

FIREMEN GET GIFT FOR WORK ON CAR

Firemen have received a box of cigars and a check for $10 from W. R. Hayes, contractor here, for their work in extinguishing a fire in his car on the Beloit road several days ago. The machine was partially destroyed when it burst into flames near the Kellogg farm.

Four automobiles were pulled out of holes and ditches by the fire department over Saturday and Sunday, two on Racine street one at the junction of Forest Park boulevard and Logan street, and the other on Caroline street, between Walker and Hyatt.

Speed in getting a new drive piston resulted in the chief car being repaired and put back into service Sunday, after the accident of Saturday which it was thought would lay it up for several days.

CAVALRY WON FOR ALLENBY, IS CLAIM

Rolled up Turk Line After All Else Had Failed, Says Officer.

Washington—Cavalry won the war—at least so much of the world conflict as was fought out in Palestine—according to Lieut. Col. Edward Davis, U. S. Army, who has just returned to Washington to present to the general staff his observations of more than six years' service with the armies of other nations.

Before the entry of the United States in the world war, and afterwards, Col. Davis served with the forces of Great Britain, France, Italy, Serbia and Greece. Later he served as military attaché in Holland and at Berlin. According to Col. Davis, his most valuable military experience was with the British cavalry during the Jerusalem campaign, and he stated he was surprised to find that so little was known in the United States regarding the facts of the campaign.

TROUBLES GROW AS U. S. TRIES TO GET RHINE EXPENSES

There are two ways proposed. One is that the United States government shall directly reimburse the claimants and collect in the far off future from Germany. The other is that the German property held by the alien property custodians here be retained indefinitely and that bonds be issued against it and these bonds turned over to the American claimants, who could sell them and realize cash value.

Thus the German property would be held intact for many years and as soon as the German government redeemed the bonds, the property would go back to the law-abiding owners. Such a scheme is in effect in South Africa and has the sanction of the British government. The British colonial government as well as the Australian and other colonial governments are applying a somewhat different system. All the British claims against Germany are satisfied out of a clearing house fund. This fund is accumulated from the proceeds of liquidation of German property which, by the terms of the Versailles treaty, can be retained or sold as the case may be, and the German owners in turn are recognized by the German government's clearing house for debts of this kind. The policy of the allies has by no means been definitely evolved but the allies can apply the German property toward reparations if they like.

Chinax Against Germany

American policy depends entirely on the wishes of congress by whose authority the German property in America originally was seized. While it is true that American claims against Germany are estimated at $200,000,000 a mixed claims commission is about to be set up by Germany and the United States to adjudicate the claims and as usual in such cases, extraneous estimates are made and set down. But there is enough German property in America to offset the American claims against Germany. A very effective campaign has been instituted by Germans in America to persuade congress to give back the property to the lawful owners. Officials concede that if congress were to vote on the same issue today the property would be returned by an overwhelming vote as there is no disposition to hold the individual Germans responsible for acts of war.

There is no tendency on the part of American claimants against Germany to inflict hardship on German owners of property in America but the people whose relatives lost their lives or whose property was destroyed during the war are insisting that since the American government cannot even collect money from Germany on the allies for sums paid out since the armistice to maintain the American army of occupation, the only chance of satisfying American claimants either is to appropriate from the treasury or to use the German property indefinitely as collateral for the issuance of bonds to pay the American claims. It's one of the most complicated legal problems that has arisen in the aftermath of war and the question has been stumbling while our government investigated the practice of other countries.

Now the incident over the American army claim is emphasizing a growing relationship between the claims for American lives and property destroyed by Germany and the assets of German citizens held by the United States government.

Heart and Home Problems

BY ELIZABETH THOMPSON.

Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am very unhappy. I just can't stand it any longer. I am in love with a man who I know I could live and die with and be the happiest woman on earth. He would be so good to me. Without this man I do not care to live.

My husband is so cranky I can't live with him. I have a baby but it does not belong to him. I am a young woman, but oh, so unhappy. Please tell me what to do. BILLIE.

If you can find a way to make a living for yourself, I think I think it would be all right to leave your husband, since you are so extremely unhappy with him.

Do not leave him because of your love for the other man. One day often have women done that simply to learn later that the loved one loses interest and ceases to love. If you leave your husband do so realizing that you will probably have to face the world alone with your child and yourself to support indefinitely.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: We are boys of 13 and have light hair which is thin. We would like you to advise on what to use to make it thicken. F. V. B. and V. W. C.

Get a bottle of mango cure at the drug store and follow the directions on the bottle. I know of no better way in which to increase the growth of hair and improve the condition of the scalp.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My daughter is 14 years old and goes to high school. She is a very good student and other work to do after school. We want her to be as interested in music as she can be for her future welfare.

She sometimes plays with a girl I object to. I can't prove anything about her, but I don't think she is fit to play with. She loves to be out nights and play. It seems to spoil my girl's interest in things. She gets saucy and snippy to me. She thinks there is none like her. This girl goes as she pleases.

Do you think I ought to go with her places when she wants to go? She seems to be pretty good when she doesn't play with this girl. Do you think I ought to forbid her playing with her entirely? I want her to avoid and company and be somebody some day. What would you have me do to make her obedient when I want her to do things so that I will not have to be nagging and talking to her all the time? ANXIOUS MOTHER.

A 14-year-old girl needs an allowance if it is possible to give it to her. I think you will find an allowance helpful in your case. I would suggest that you give your child 70 cents or $1.40 a week and deduct a portion of it when she is saucy and disobedient. If she receives 70 cents take from 5 cents upward, according to the nature of the offense, and if she receives $1.40 take off 10 cents and upward.

Perhaps your opposition to her playing with the girl she most enjoys tends to make her disagreeable as much as the girl herself. I would suggest that you make the best of your daughter's determination to play with her and from now on encourage the play to take place in your own home. Let her invite her friend to come. Perhaps your daughter and her friend will find many admirable qualities which your daughter appreciated and which you failed to observe.

Yes, I would advise you to take your little girl places where she particularly wants to go. It will be a treat to her to attend movies and other entertainments, and it will be worth your while to keep her contented by taking her.

Packed House Captivated by Winsome "Irene"

BY FRANK SINGLAI.

Irene, testimony that endearing charms flourish in life's every station, smiled her way into the hearts of Janesville Monday night and then tripped happily onward to her next conquest. For Irene Dunne is the most winsome little actress to captivate Dower City cheaters goes in many a day.

A packed house laughed, roared and clapped James Montgomery's musical comedy at the Myers in the heartiest spontaneous outburst of the season. The rich setting brought back memories of the days when Janesville was the center for Wisconsin and Northern Illinois in all that was highest on the stage.

Sprightly, twinkling with humor, clever and wholesome, "Irene" is a production of topmost merit. Seldom does a musical comedy present such excellent pieces of talent.

But Irene O'Dare! She's a breath of fresh air, a breeze from the department store. She's typical of No. 9's lower West Side and wonderfully true to human nature. A lady of the temperament, a princess of society, her bewitchingly girlish smile of innocence cloaks itself about her audience and leads them to her heart.

When it is over, you want to jump back stage and shower her with roses, and when it is over, you want to jump back stage and shower her with roses, and when it is over, you want to jump back stage and shower her with roses.

The comedy brilliantly, Busby Berkeley undertakes the difficult part of Irene. Lucy, a show-man, in amusing perfection.

For the rest, Mrs. O'Dare (Emma DeVoe) is the typical, good-natured Irishwoman, while Charles Jerome (Irishman) pictures well J. J. Bowden.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Editor Gazette:

Being a teamster I was interested in watching the hauling of gravel by the city teams. For weeks the winter they were hauling from Bunker Hill to streets in the second ward and this gravel sure cost the city lots of money. The teams I watched hauled only three and four loads a day and the teamster didn't work at all. He was just holding the lines, he did not do any shoveling. When I drive a team I always have to shovel when there is shoveling to do, and why should the city teamster not shovel a little too. I could easily haul twelve loads a day where they haul three and four. But I suppose nobody cares very much because the ones whose business it is to see the work is done, don't have to pay these teamsters out of their own pockets. The people pay the bill. I don't know very much about the insides of our City Hall but I am afraid there is lots of bad leaks in other things same as in the City Manager can do. It can't be much worse.

GOVERNOR VETOES SUBSTITUTE FOR REPEAL MEASURE

"When some hungry man steals a loaf of bread, he is bombarded by pitiless publicity and the felon's cell awaits him. When the wealthy profiteer cheats the state of thousands of dollars, the legislature hides his crimes and honors the criminal."

"The people of this state are entitled to retain the secrecy clause in the income tax act if they so wish; if they shall so vote, understandingly, we must accept their decision. But I cannot become party to a scheme as I believe it to be—designed to be—turbid and before the voter."

Approval Withheld.

"Let the issue stand out naked; give the people a chance to gaze on the crimes whereby the honest taxpayers have been cheated out of millions of dollars to swell the coffers of the dishonest, who are in a square deal or a lie. From the broad standpoint of public policy—that taxation is a public matter and not a private transaction, and that there should be no secrecy in public affairs, this bill cannot be approved."

"For the reasons stated, I return the bill without my approval."

The special session of the Wisconsin legislature adjourned Sunday Tuesday, after hearing the veto message of Governor Blaine.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT
Written and Publication Authorized by the Citizens' Committee, T. O. Howe, Chairman, and paid for by them at the rate of $50 per inch.
This Committee has no interest in the political welfare of any individual or group. Its members feel that whatever form of government best serves a majority of the citizens of Janesville, is best for the individual members of this Committee. We are neither for nor against the present administration, that is not an issue in this election. The sole question to be decided is whether a City Manager plan of government which must continue for not less than four years is preferable to our present form. To vote in favor of the proposed change because you are dissatisfied with some of the present Aldermen is as illogical as voting to repeal the constitution of the United States because you are not in sympathy with one of its amendments.
The City Manager plan of government is autocratic and contrary to the fundamental principles upon which the American theory of government is based. Under that plan, the City Manager is chosen by the Council and is not responsible to the people, but is answerable only to the Council, which, as it selected him, will naturally defend him.
The City Manager has power to make all contracts for the City and to expend the City's money to create minor administration offices and positions and discontinue the same; to appoint all heads of departments and all subordinate City officials and all City employees, without regard to residence, and remove the same if they are unsatisfactory to him.
We are not in favor of giving these broad and absolute powers to a stranger. We are opposed to one man rule.

City Management

There will be a referendum election next Tuesday from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m., on the question of adopting the city manager form of government for the city of Janesville.

The election is held under the law of the state. There is nothing complicated about it. The law provides for a council that will be the legislative body of the city and for a city manager to be elected by the council, who will be the responsible executive agent of the people to see that things are done—a full time executive.

The business of the city manager is to see that the money of the taxpayers is spent so as to give the men and women who have paid for service 100 cents on every dollar. That's his job. In 300 cities the city managers have accomplished this purpose.

Under the city manager form as presented to the citizens of the city of Janesville not a single official now in office is disturbed by the adoption of city management. Not one is removed. All now in office will serve out the term for which they were elected. So there is no punishment to anyone and endeavors to make out that adoption of the managerial form is a sort of recall is not based on fact.

The city manager is elected by the council. He may be from Janesville or from outside the same as the superintendent of schools.

The city manager may be removed by the council. No recall election is needed. Salary is fixed by the council.

All legislation is in the hands of the council. But all executive duties are in the hands of the manager.

The city manager is not a moral censor and has nothing to do with making the regulations of Sunday closing or opening. That is for the city council. The manager is there to execute the laws.

The city manager plan is the government of 300 cities and only one, Hot Springs, Ark., has returned to the aldermanic form after once having the manager plan.

You won't have to go trotting around to find who is responsible for anything in city management.

In every election where city manager has been adopted the forces of special privilege and the self styled "ruling classes" have opposed the plan. Labor, the house owner, the business men, the "people" have almost invariably been in support of the plan.

Under the aldermanic form whenever great crises have come, famine, flood or epidemic, the government has failed. It has been necessary to replace it with city manager of some other form than aldermanic.

Members of the council will be seven in number under the election in Janesville. They will be selected by the people at large just as a part of the board of education is now. It is a people's government.

There is no election for these members at this election. They will be selected a year from now in April, 1923, and the city manager be chosen then by the council.

The present condition of the city from a financial point of view is serious on the admissions of the government itself. It demands the most careful management, not only now but in the future. The tax levy of the past year has been high. In the face of things it will not be less for this year. The bonding limit of the city has reached the danger point. The aggregate great sum of the city taxes is paid by the smaller taxpayer. He should conserve his on interests.

It is time, however, not to look into the past but into the future. There is one bright ray of sunshine and that is adopting the ordinary rules of good business management to city government under a city manager plan.

Draw for Pairings in "Y" Amateur Basket Meet Tuesday

"Y" MEET FIVES WILL NOT PLAY IN STATE TOURNEY

BULLETIN
Drawings for the Rock-Green county amateur basketball tournament will be made at the local Y. M. C. A. Tuesday afternoon. This announcement was made Tuesday morning by Physical Director A. E. Bergman.

The Griddle Athletic club of Beloit is the latest team to enter. This makes eight in all. The meet opens Friday, and continues through Saturday.

Teams in the Rock, Green, Grant and Lafayette county amateur basketball championship tournaments will not play in the state meet, it was announced Monday by A. E. Bergman, physical director of the local Y. M. C. A. The date for the state meet, originally set for Apr. 15-20, has been changed so it starts at Milwaukee Tuesday and goes through Wednesday.

Officials at the local institution are up in the air. They declare the chance of dates is not fair to this district. The state association declares the change was made necessary because certain district winners who have already been decided are fretting about waiting for the middle of April. Plans for the meet were started by the state more than a month ago.

The tournaments for this section, however, will be held as planned. Trophies for the winners will be given. The meet for Rock and Green counties is to open here Friday and continue through Saturday. That for Grant and Lafayette counties will be held at the Beloit Y. M. C. A. The winners of the two meets will meet later at the Milton college gymnasium.

New Glarus has been added to the list of teams to play in Janesville, making seven entries received to date. The others are the R. F. De, the tank corps and the Senior "Y" of Janesville, the American legion and the South Beloit Tigers, Beloit; and the Milton Engineers.

In making scholarship an essential for the Gazette trophy to be awarded the best all-around school in the proposed high school conference, this newspaper hopes to instill and all-around physical and mental ability in the players. Athletics lose much of their value where learning is not given complete consideration.

In the event the conference is formed and Janesville enters, this city will become the natural center for the annual track and field meet. The facilities are here and it is the logical radius point for the 10 teams contemplated.

Some high schools lag when it comes to track events fearing the cost of equipment. Milton Union shows the progressive spirit by planning a tourney with what equipment is at hand and what can be made. In fact, most all necessary equipment can be made by boys in manual training classes which would add incentive and practicality to their class work.

Frank Brown, Beloit boxer, offers a $1,000 side bet that Jimmy Demetrius, Madison wrestler, cannot stay with him 10 rounds, each man using his own game. Brown appears to be willing to lose that thousand for from what fans saw of him in Janesville he is not big enough yet to go far in the game of padded athletes. Maybe he thinks the novelty of it will fool the angry mob and hook their coin.

Danward golf, or horseshoe pitching, is going to be popular in Wisconsin this year. A tourney will be held in Milwaukee, May 20-23, at the Wisconsin Outdoors show. Marinette and Sheboygan counties men are in preliminary match. Come on, Janesville, get out those "Dobbin's" Oxford.

Fight Talk—Four St. Paul boxers—Mike Saito, "Shifty" Coe, Fred Lambert and Bates Cunningham—were suspended by the Minnesota commission for "stalling" in a bout at Eau Claire. Dave Shuler, California, scored technical knockout at Milwaukee when the referee said Pinky Mitchell was not on his feet at the count in the fourth round. Ed (Sanger) Lewis, heavyweight wrestling champ, defeated Yousif Mahmoud, Bulgarian, in two falls at Kansas City. Pat McCarthy, Roxbury, Mass., outpointed Bob Roper (16). Jimmy Jones shaded Johnny Tullman, St. Paul (8). Phil O'Dowd, baniam, won decision over Pekin Kid Herman (10).

West Side alleys, Watertown, Wis., slid into second place at the A. B. C. meet Monday with a 2,957 count. Beloit keglers failed to show up in the money. Kenosha and Madison take to the drives Tuesday. The last out of town teams roll Thursday.

Herman Margard, Sr., president Central States Bowling association, refuses to resign in A. B. C. scandal.

H. B. Moore, Milwaukee, won the state checker title.

Paddy Driscoll signed with the Pyottis of Chicago.

Sam Barry was made athletic director at Knox.

Strangler Lewis signs to wrestle Earl Caddock April 13.

Wisconsin's gym team lost to Minnesota, 9237 to 9126.

Myrtle Basing, Appleton, will captain the 1923 Lawrence basketball team.

LaCrosse Normal has 50 men out for baseball.

Lewis Offers $50,000 for Go With Dempsey
Jensen City, Okla.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, world's wrestling champion, offers to meet Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight boxer, at 191 match here, in the proposed wrestling-boxing match for a side bet of $50,000 and the winner to receive gate receipts. The offer was contained in a letter from Lewis Tuesday, replying to Col. J. C. Miller, who had offered a $200,000 guarantee and a split in receipts. Dempsey has not been heard from, Miller said.

Bowling Meet Rests Two Days
The Southern Wisconsin-Northern Illinois bowling tournament being held on the West Side alleys here, rested Tuesday and will not resume until Thursday night. Then four local squads will take to the drives. They will be two from the Kiwanis club, the Lewis Union Suite and the Cronin Dairy company. No more games will be rolled after that until Sunday afternoon.

"YW" BASKET TEAM WILL PLAY MADISON
Madison Y. W. C. A. girls' basketball team will come to Janesville Friday night of this week to play the local "YW" at the high school. The Janesville girls are being put through strenuous practice to whip them into shape for the battle. In recent games they have been slow in getting started.

CHI SEMI-PROS NAME BIG CHIEF
Chicago—Semi-professional baseball in Chicago and the surrounding territory will have John P. Culleton, business manager of the Chicago department, as its high commissioner this season. Culleton announced his acceptance of this position for the Chicago city league and the interstate league Monday night.

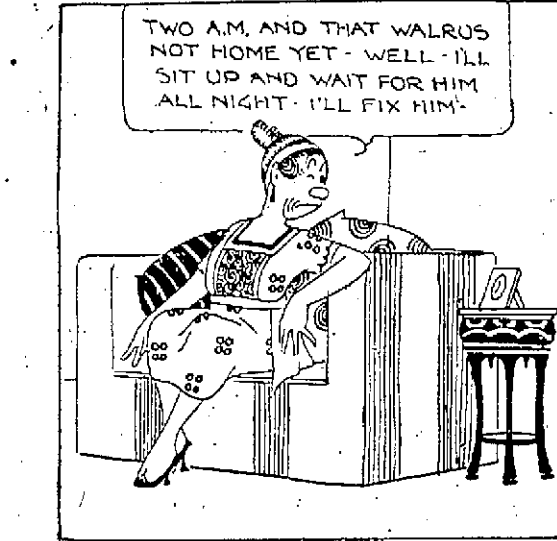

A. A. U. OFFICIALS FRAME SPORTS FOR WOMEN
Boston—Amateur athletic union officials and representatives of women's sport organizations will meet in New York on Apr. 8 to discuss plans for feminine participation in sports. The meeting was arranged in connection with the plans for events for women to be undertaken by the A. A. U. in order that this country may be able to meet like competition from the rest of the world in coming olympics.

SCHAEFER LEADING HOPPE IN TOURNEY
Chicago—Jake Schaefer, world's champion 132 ball-line billiardist, will have an opportunity from his first shot Tuesday night to increase the 34 point lead he established Monday night over Willie Hoppe, former champion, when he won the first block of their 1,500 point three night match 599 to 466. Rounding out his fifth century with an unbroken run of 24, Schaefer left the balls nicely grouped at the head of the table for his opening shot Tuesday night.

BLACK SOX WIN
The Black Sox defeated the Red Sox, 20 to 19, at Court house park Sunday. Batteries: Hughes and Waterman, Red Sox; Wauffe and Shaub, Black Sox.

The Menasha Tractors won the district "Y" meet at Appleton, beating New London Motors, 21 to 15. Seventy have come out for baseball at Columbia university, Dubuque.

$65,000 Section Is Being Added to Switchboard

Operators of the Wisconsin Telephone company at the Janesville office on Milwaukee street are working under trying conditions. Slight delays in service may be caused due to the cramped condition of the switchboard which will prevail for the next seven weeks while the work of installing the $65,000 addition to the switchboard is being completed.

Experts of the Western Electric company are soldering and packing the hundreds of wires in the cables in the back of the operating board, and which makes available to each operator a connection with every telephone of the system. Usually completion of a job of this size requires four months' work, according to W. N. Cash, manager, but the work here will be rushed through in one-half the time. A crew of 35 men, all experts in a certain part of the work of installation, will arrive here this week.

While four men work in making the many intricate connections in back of the switchboard, others are at work in the apparatus room on the floor below where all the wires come in from all over the city and country. Three carloads of supplies will be used in the installation here April 18.

Many new devices which tend toward the development of service are to be found on the new boards. Chief among them is the automatic signalling device which tells the operator which telephone on a party line she has called when a second inquiry of the person instituting the call is made.

COUNTRY SCHOOLS DEPLETED; CHANGE IN LAW ADVOCATED

Spring brings, among other things, a decrease in the number of pupils in rural schools, according to County Superintendent O. D. Antisdel, who estimated that with 4,500 under his supervision in the county, the attendance averages about three-fourths daily throughout the year.

"There is need for vital changes in the compulsory education law in the rural districts," said Mr. Antisdel. "Because the farmers leave their children from school to work before the year is out is the reason so many are not promoted, have to take the work over, grow discouraged and drop out of school without completing the grades. I believe the average years of schooling which the rural school pupil in Rock county gets is less than six years. It would be sufficient if the farmers would allow their pupils to attend regularly until they were 14, when most of them would have completed grade school."

The first schools to close for the year will be about May 15.

LENT PUTS CRIMP IN SAN CUPID'S WORK

People in Rock county seem to abstain from marriages as well as other things in Lent. Judging from the clerk's office in the county clerk's office in this department, there have been only five marriages since the opening of Lent, and Miss Rosina Stony is waiting for the Easter "marriage season" for business to pick up.

WHITEWATER TO CELEBRATE FOURTH

Invitation to the Chamber of Commerce and the citizens of Janesville to attend the Whitewater Fourth of July celebration was received here Tuesday by the Chamber. The Whitewater Chamber, American Legion and fire department have charge of the ceremonies.

Favors Free Mailing of Library Books

Miss Fannie Cox, librarian of the Janesville public library, favors the bill now before congress to allow the free distribution through the mails of library books to farmers, but believes the county service here could not be extended unless it were given by the county.

At present 1,000 farmers are card holders at the Janesville library and some live in Whitewater, Milton and rural sections around about Janesville. The library here is doing all possible for the farmers under present conditions, Miss Cox says, and what is vitally needed is a fund which would allow the installation of a duplicate set for farmers' use. This has been done in many counties, Miss Cox said.

Rock county is unique in respect to libraries, there being four, at Janesville, Beloit, Evansville and Edgerton, all of which give service to farmers.

At present seven farmers are accommodated by having books sent through the mails to them from the Janesville library, Miss Cox said.

HOLT TO SPEAK AT LEGION—C. C. MEET

Frank C. Holt, superintendent of schools, will speak, at the special business men's meeting of the Rock County Legion at 8 o'clock, Tuesday night, at the Commercial building. Tuesday night, the meeting starts at 8 p. m. All business men are invited.

The legion is working up a novel program built along army lines. In addition to show with "moss kits," there will be army games and other special features. Reward Cliftore will be present with his novelty jazz orchestra. Community singing under leadership of Dr. Irving Clark will be a feature.

The purpose of the session is to bring the former service men and the business men in closer touch.

DON'T STEP ON 'ER TGO HARD, FEVERISH MOTORISTS WARNED

Janesville motorists, inoculated with spring fever, one of the acute symptoms of which, is a desire to "step on 'er," must heed the warning of the police and curb that desire. It is said motorists most open to catching this disease are those who have not had a hand on the wheel all winter.

From the congestion of traffic, Sunday was the greatest day for motorists so far this year and April should see all cars rescued from the snarls where they have been hibernating through the winter.

More motorists get the fever during April than any other month of the year, according to police officials.
